

Chief Executive Officer

Castlemaine District Community Health Ltd

Our client, Castlemaine District Community Health Ltd (CDCH), provides a range of primary health services for its community. This is an excellent opportunity for a high calibre, experienced, health professional to lead this unique and innovative organisation. The Board of CDCH is seeking a dynamic executive to develop and maintain strategic connections and productive relationships with key external stakeholders whilst building and maintaining the internal culture of the organisation.

As the Chief Executive Officer you will be responsible to the Board of Directors for the provision of high quality, flexible and innovative health services for all age-groups in the Mount Alexander shire. The CEO is responsible for the leadership and management of CDCH, including planning, operations, finance, human resources and administration; and promoting and expanding the organisation's operations. The role offers the challenge to manage a dynamic and community-based health organisation and the opportunity to enjoy an enviable rural lifestyle.

To meet the requirements of the role you will have relevant tertiary qualifications in management or a health related field, proven financial and management experience and excellent communication skills. Knowledge of relevant funding streams and the primary care policy environment are also required for this position.

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated with the successful applicant.
