

Chief Executive Officer

Echuca Regional Health

Echuca Regional Health (ERH) is an integrated acute, sub-acute, residential aged care, community and primary care sub-regional health service. After the completion of a $65 million redevelopment in August 2015, ERH comprises 113 beds providing a comprehensive range of services including emergency, medical, sub-acute surgical, maternity, paediatric, urology, orthopaedic, ophthalmology, dental, chemotherapy and haemodialysis services. ERH also encompasses an aged care service, Glanville Village, which has 60 residential beds.

A new Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is being sought to continue the strong focus on increasing the capacity of ERH as a sub-regional teaching health service, which strives to deliver the best possible care to its community.

The CEO will provide executive leadership, operational management and direction towards achievement of ERH's Vision and Strategic Priorities. Under the direction of the Board of Management, the CEO is responsible for implementing the strategic direction of ERH ensuring the organisation maintains an excellent reputation, meets statutory regulations and complies with the Victorian Department of Health & Human Services policies and procedures.

To be considered for this role, you will be an executive with a track record of success in the leadership of a complex organisation, promoting the values of that organisation, achieving key performance indicators and budget targets. Your experience will be supported by relevant tertiary qualifications, to postgraduate level and membership of a relevant professional association. High level relationship management skills and an excellent understanding of clinical governance and risk management are also mandatory requirements for this exceptional career role.

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated to secure the highest calibre candidate for this key appointment. Full details are available on our web site:
