

Chief Executive Officer

Orbost Regional Health

Our client, Orbost Regional Health, offers acute, urgent care, medical and surgical, and is seeking an experienced health professional and energetic leader to undertake this exciting role. An MPS that boasts an array of community health (including NDIS funded services), welfare and aged care services, Orbost Regional Health is a dynamic and important community organisation committed to the care of its patients and residents.

As the Chief Executive Officer you will provide executive leadership, operational management and direction towards achievement of the Health Service's Strategic Plan. The Board is seeking a dynamic executive to develop and maintain strategic connections and productive relationships with key external stakeholders whilst building the internal capabilities of the organisation.

This is a unique opportunity for an experienced health executive. The role offers the challenge to manage a dynamic and community-based health organisation and the opportunity to enjoy the enviable lifestyle of a rural community. The area of Far East Gippsland boasts many fantastic wilderness areas and beautiful coastal beaches.

To meet the requirements of the role you will have relevant tertiary qualifications (preferably to post-graduate level) and management and leadership experience in either the public or private sector, in health care, with clearly demonstrated achievement of outcomes together with experience in a clinical area. The Board are seeking candidates with the intellectual rigour and perseverance to ensure best practice standards are met and the energy, commitment and capacity needed to promote a commercially viable but community-sensitive facility serving a range of stakeholders.

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated to secure the highest calibre candidate for this key appointment. Full details are available on our web site:
