

Chief Executive Officer

Rochester & Elmore District Health Service

Rochester and Elmore District Health Service (REDHS) is situated close to the regional centres of Bendigo and Echuca, and only two hours from Melbourne. REDHS is an integrated rural health service, providing a broad range of acute, residential aged care, DPU, preventative and primary health programs to a population of approximately 8,600 people in the Campaspe and Bendigo Shires. REDHS as an organisation enjoys a strong relationship with its community and is focussed on delivering services to meet identified community needs. The state-of-the art facilities afford the opportunity to grow community based services, particularly in the area of primary health care, whilst remaining committed to acute and aged care services. The REDHS Board are currently seeking a high calibre health executive for this important position.

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for implementing the strategic direction of REDHS, as determined by the Board, as well as ensuring safe and effective health services are provided to the community. This role requires an energetic and experienced individual that can help lead this dynamic and innovative organisation.

To meet the requirements of the role you will have post-graduate tertiary qualifications in health management or a business related field. You will need to demonstrated high levels of leadership, organisational and interpersonal skills and experience in human resource management and industrial relations. Knowledge of funding and current government policy and direction of acute, aged residential, community and primary health care services are also required for this position.

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated with the successful applicant.
