

Director of Corporate Services

Central Highlands Rural Health

12 month contract

Central Highlands Rural Health (CHRH) has been recently established as a result of the merger of Hepburn Health Service and Kyneton District Health. The merger has taken place to enhance the capability of the respective health services to meet the needs of the community and improve access to personalised, high quality health care. The new single entity will service a wider catchment area in order to cater to the health needs of a growing population and will deliver new services locally, such as chemotherapy in Kyneton from early 2020. They are now seeking a high calibre health executive for this important new position on a 12 month contract basis.

Reporting directly to the CEO, this executive position provides high level strategic and operational oversight across the 5 campuses of Central Highlands Rural Health (CHRH) Corporate Services, which includes Information Technology, Hotel and Environmental Services, Infrastructure and Fleet, Gardening, Supply and Procurement, Emergency Management and all related support services (such as capital projects, contracts and asset management). The position will assist in advancing the integration and change agenda of CHRH and will also play a key role in collaborating with all levels of management in implementing, monitoring and reviewing the organisational strategy as it relates to the Division.

To meet the requirements of the role you will need to be able to demonstrate experience in a senior management role relating to managing people and leading culture with proven well developed leadership and management skills in a complex and changing environment. This will include demonstrated knowledge regarding the contemporary management of the functional areas in the Corporate Services Division. Relevant postgraduate or tertiary qualification or willingness to work towards same is also a requirement of the position.

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated with the successful applicant.
