

Executive Manager Quality Outcomes & Innovation Shepparton Villages

Shepparton Retirement Villages (SRV) is a non-for-profit community-based organisation that was founded by the Rotary Club of Shepparton back in 1968. Since that time, SRV has become the largest provider of aged care services in the Shepparton region. Across its 3 campuses, SRV is responsible for the delivery of care across 286 residential aged care beds, 272 independent living units as well as 50 aged care packages designed to help keep people at home for longer.

Reporting directly to the CEO, the Executive Manager Quality Outcomes & Innovation is responsible for the leadership and management of the organisation's high-quality outcomes, ensuring that all SRV residential care facilities meet Accreditation, and that innovation of practice is forefront of practice at all levels at SRV. This position is instrumental to the success of the organisation achieving its strategic goals, assessing, planning, implementing and evaluating management and leadership directions that result in delivery of quality care.

This important leadership role would suit a Division One AHPRA registered nursing professional preferably with post graduate qualifications in health management or a field relating to quality and accreditation. You will have a working background gained in working in a clinical leadership role in a Residential Aged Care Home and knowledge of the current and proposed Aged Care Standards, National Disability Standards and the accreditation process for residential aged care and home care programs. You will also have had experience developing systems and processes that measure quality against standards and be able to demonstrate experience in leading accreditation audits and responding to unannounced visits by the Aged Care Quality & Safety Commission.
