

Chief Executive Officer

Corryong Health

Situated in the picturesque Upper Murray region, Corryong Health is a Multi-Purpose Service providing a comprehensive range of hospital, residential aged care, medical and primary health and community support services, including a Medical Clinic, Health and Fitness Centre, home based CHPS/NDIS services and Retirement Village.

Corryong Health has a long and proud history of servicing its community and with an operating budget of around $17 million it is the largest regional employer in the Upper Murray area with a staff of approximately 160 dedicated employees, and delivering over 35,000 occasions of service. The Board is seeking to appoint a talented and visionary leader to become its new Chief Executive Officer.

Reporting to the Board, the CEO will be responsible for providing high quality health services that are cost-effective and responsive to government policy direction and community needs. Engaging collaboratively with internal and external stakeholders, the CEO will identify and leverage opportunities with a focus on providing outstanding client-centred care and services and driving an organisational culture that is respectful and cooperative with highly engaged employees.

To be considered for this outstanding career opportunity, you will have demonstrated competence in leadership and general management at senior/executive levels in the health sector. Your experience will be based on a detailed knowledge of the Australian Healthcare Industry and current developments in MPS, hospitals, residential aged care, primary health and community sectors. It will be critical that you can demonstrate an understanding of the role of the Health Service in response to community needs within a rural community. A clinical background will be well regarded.

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated with the successful applicant including access to generous salary packaging arrangements.
